Lincoln provides us with an endless variety of traditions. The mellow, red, time-worn brick against the kaleidoscope of Nature's autumn colors is a backdrop for the busy days of fall—morning rallies in the new gym boosting our pep to climactic heights... Lincoln students on a rain-soaked night, cheering the team to victory with undaunted spirit... Homecoming, the day when football reigns as King. In the winter, the dismal grey of rain and snow is brightened by the rainbow of Seniors in their Senior Week finery... by basketball games in gaily lit gyms, and the aura of happiness that accompanies a game well-won... by familiar, friendly shouts of, "Meet me under the clock," and "See you in the lunchroom before school!"

With Spring comes T-Day, blending the Lincoln of past and present into one pompous day of tradition... Junior Day, when the leaders of Lincoln tomorrow, show how ready they are to shoulder the load... and finally Graduation, when all the Seniors go into a brave new world.

All these are part of Lincoln's rich heritage, but let us always remember the most obvious, yet least publicized of all—the tradition of true learning.

—CANDIS KRUMMEL

*Hands that work to harvest,
Hands that build up to the sky,
Hands that write for all the future
Never falter or ask why.*

*Little hands that ache for action,
Larger ones which learn to mold,
Hands that can lie quiet,
Less busy as they grow old.*

*Hands in a prayerful position,
Hands! soothe the fevered brow,
Hands pick up the less fortunate,
All make life as it is now.*

*So, into your hands extended,
With this book in your sight,
May your Annual in some small measure,
Give you memories that are bright.*

HOME COMING

Gary Axtel, elected by his teammates as Mr. Football, crowns his choice of Mrs. Football, Fran Watson.

This committee worked hard getting the mums ready for distribution.

Our new banner, presented to the school by Mr. Everett Fenton, a Lincoln alum, was first shown to the student body at the Homecoming assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, Jim Kuckenbecker and Terry Xenos, wave as they receive the approval of the student body.

Following the theme of this year's T. Day, the rooms and halls became significant of scenes found at the time of Lincoln's inauguration.

Under the leadership of chairman Kaaren Ytterdal and guidance of advisor Mr. Koller another T-Day passed into Lincoln tradition. Following the theme of the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's inauguration, the school became a living picture of his day.

FACULTY

During the last few years I have observed a change in the attitude of most of our students. This change is reflected in many ways, but the most apparent difference to me is the growth in respect for learning. Each year a higher percentage of our graduates enter college or continue their education in a vocational school. This is as it should be. I have also noticed a big change in the attitude of our students toward student government. Your desire for excellence in this field has also changed the atmosphere of the school so that the climate of the school is one where learning and good citizenship go hand in hand. Let us all work to keep up the good work.

HOMER M. DAVIS, Principal

There is a proverb that reads, "A wise man will hear and will increase learning;..." To the students who are leaving Lincoln, I wish success in whatever your future plans may be. May you continue to increase your learning whether it be in further education, in the service of our country, in the business world or in homemaking.

It has been most gratifying to have worked with our fine student body during this past year. Your participation and cooperation in all school activities, together with your scholastic accomplishments, have made this a very rewarding year at Lincoln.

MOST IMPROVED

In the first practice game of the '60 season, the Lynx piled up a huge statistical advantage over the Kuays but came out on the bottom of a 14-0 score. Several Lincoln drives were halted by the clock, penalties, and fumbles. Lynx rushers and passers picked up sixteen first downs to six for Queen Anne.

In the first game of what could prove to be a bitter rivalry between Lincoln and its new neighbor, Ingraham, the Lynx played daring football and beat the inexperienced Rams, 19-0. Halfbacks Lee Kitchel and Terry Cummings got Lincoln's first two touchdowns and tackle Del Molenkamp pounced on a fumble in the end zone for another touchdown. Fullback Ron Roe was the outstanding rusher in the game, rambling for 82 yards in 9 carries. The Lynx defense was also impressive, stopping the Rams twice inside the 10-yard line.

In their first varsity football game with Shoreline, the scrappy Lynx fought like their namesake while going down to defeat. This game showed for the first time the Lynx "Razzle Dazzle" play which produced an 83-yard touchdown in the first quarter from Tom Barrett to Wally Skidmore. The Lynx were still in the ball game until the powerful Spartans scored their second touchdown with seconds remaining.

Lincoln built up a huge statistical advantage against Ballard, but penalties and two long pass plays spoiled the Lynx charges and they went down to a 12-6 defeat. Tom Barrett scored the only Lynx touchdown on a quarterback sneak.

The Roosevelt Teddies were able to penetrate a stubborn Lincoln defense to score a first-half touchdown and then had to hold on as the Lynx came back in the second half and desperately tried to click for a touchdown drive. A 47-yard pass play from quarterback Tom Barrett to end Roger Rourke put Lincoln on the Teddy 36-yard line, but they could not move the ball any farther. A small, inexperienced line that was a question mark at the beginning of the year, proved itself capable of handling its share of the load.

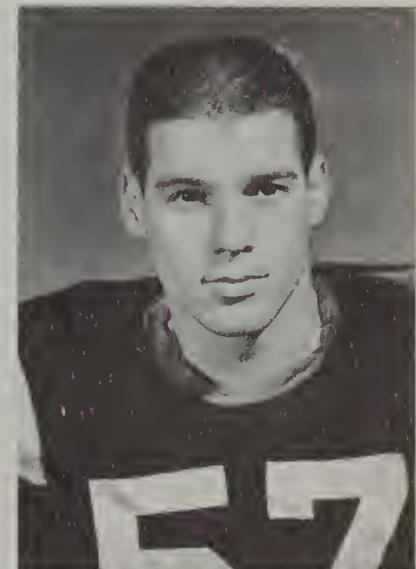

In the Edmonds game the Lynx finally came into their own routing the Tigers, 31-7. Alert line play by centers Doug Proudflock and Jim Parsons, the long, high punts of quarterback Dave Moffitt, and the daring running of halfbacks Lee Kitchel, Chuck Czubin, and Bill Platt highlighted the game. Lynx touchdowns were scored by Barrett, Kitchel, Platt, and Zahran. With this victory the Lynx clinched fourth place in the North Division.

The West Seattle game made high school fans take notice of the Lincoln squad, a team that started slowly but was improving rapidly. On the first play after the kick-off, Bullet Bill Platt shot off tackle and went 83 yards for the touchdown. Another Lynx tally came in the second quarter when Chuck Czubin, Gary Axtell, and Ron Roe sparked an 81-yard drive. Czubin got the touchdown on a 1-yard plunge.

The mighty Lynx finished fast in the football race walloping Sealth, 33-6, to take seventh place in the Metro League.

Coach Jay Dishnow is presented with a gift by the 1961 Basketball Squad. Coach Dishnow has decided to retire from coaching basketball after many years at Lincoln. During these years Mr. Dishnow has skillfully imparted the fundamentals of the sport to the athletes so they could excell as varsity players. He has given unselfishly of his time and self and has contributed greatly to Lincoln's athletic successes.

Bolstered by seven returning lettermen and the defeat of last year's champs, Garfield, in the season opener, Mahoski's hard-hitting Lynx have a good chance to become a team with the winning habit. They are the likely team of the North Division to bid for the Metro Championship.

SECOND TEAM

The second team members, under the direction of Mr. Hardman, are gaining experience so that they can represent Lincoln as next year's varsity team.

Track has a larger turnout than any other of the Spring sports.

BYNG NIXON
Head Coach

TRACK

Lincoln's track team will be one of the contenders for the Metro track championship this year. The Lynx will be trying to improve their surprisingly strong third place finish last year. Coach Byng Nixon hopes that some of his men will develop fast enough to support his returning lettermen.

RICHARD HAYS
Assistant Coach

Three of last year's lettermen, Czubin, Moffitt and Karlsons, take off rapidly at the sound of the gun.

Phil May trains hard in hopes of improving last year's fourth place finish in the All State high jumping event.

Golf Squad: Menig, Richardson, Peppard, Strahl, Hooper, Kingston, Gray, Matzke, O'Flaherty, Vezzetti, Van Houten, Compton, Evans.

Golf Lettermen Hopeful

Struggling to maintain the excellent record of the Lincoln High School Golf Team, this year's squad is practicing diligently. Returning lettermen Bill Richardson, Chuck Gray, Terry Hooper, and Norm Noble hopefully anticipate a successful season. Successful pre-season matches justify this optimistic outlook.

LES JOHNSON
Coach

Bill Richardson tees off as Chuck Gray and Terry Hooper await their turn during pre-season practice.

Bill Strahl sinks a 10-foot putt as the Lynx golfers go on to a match victory.

Fred Wolfstone returns a fast serve from Jurgen Hower.

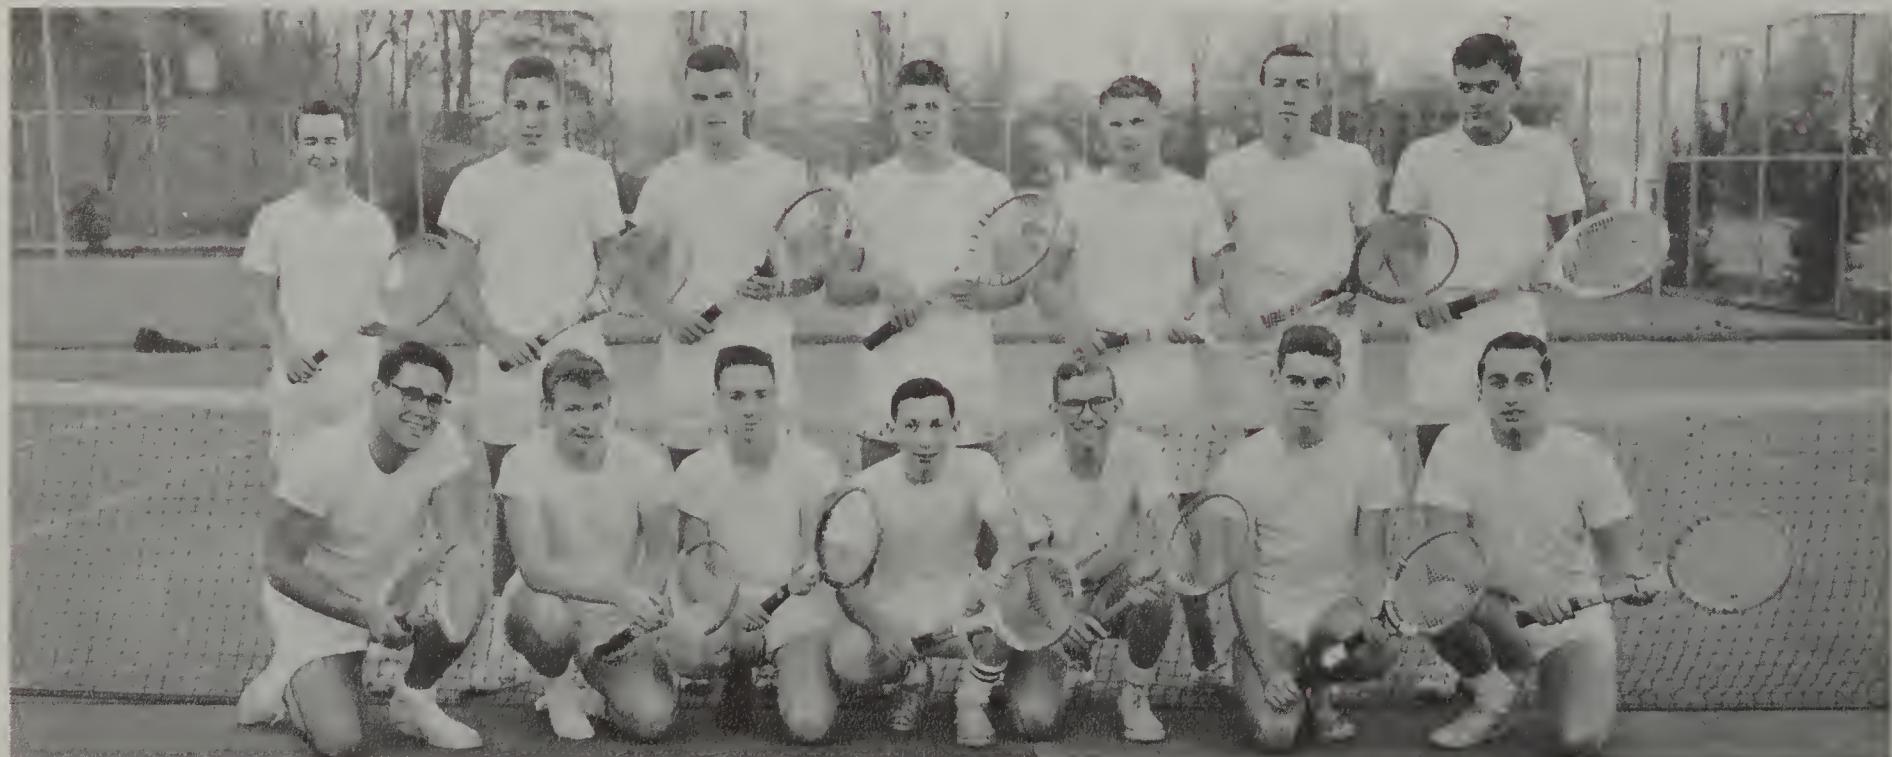

Jon Bayley attempts to ace his opponent with a hard serve in a pre-season match.

JAMES KIDRICK
Coach

Net Season Holds Promise

With six lettermen participating in pre-season play, the Lynx prospects for a good season are the best in many years. Jon Bayley, Bill LaVigne, Jack Wedeberg, Fred Wolfstone, Gary Johnson, with the addition of our exchange student, Jurgen Hower, give Lincoln good balance and depth. Coach Kidrick optimistically predicts a First Division finish for his netmen.

Tennis Team: Case, Longanbach, Bayley, Johnson, Yost, Heino, Hower, Wolfstone, Haslam, Wasner, Kustina, Little, Notter.

"AA" League Champs: Noble, Borg, Hendrickson, Gerbing, Summers, Fasenmaier, Lynch.

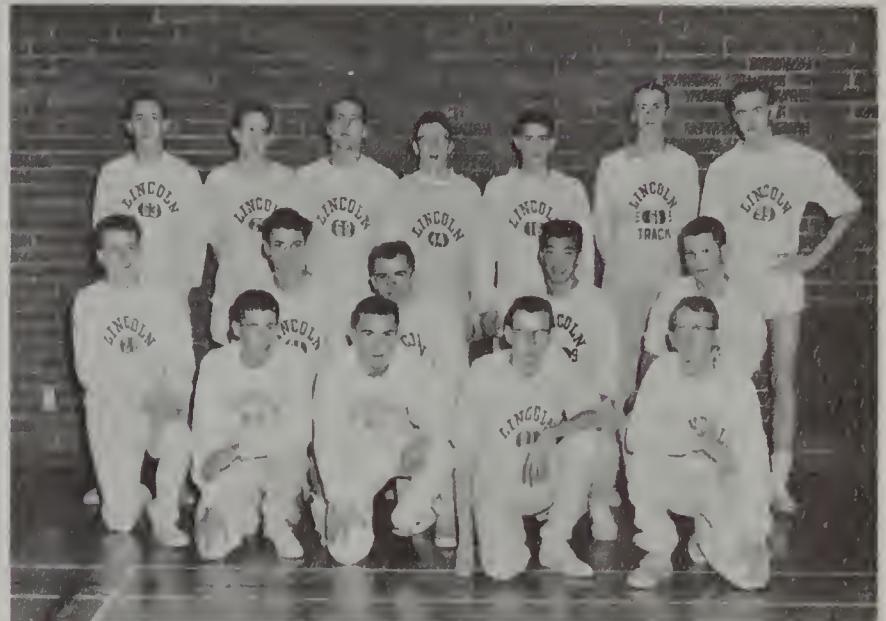

"A" League Champs: Pankievich, Anderson, Bodtke, Hall, Morrison, Koss, Tenlen.

"B" League Champs: Case, Watts, Watkins, Shettle, Dietrich, Wasner, Robinson.

Intramurals

100 Mile Club: Jennings, Morrison, Ingbretsen, Miller, Scott, Thompson, Carrol, Cauldwell, Buchanan, McNeal, Luke, Foster, Hurlbut, Jordan, Burns, Johnston.

Lincoln Bowlers aim for the pocket while teammates look on in hopeful anticipation of a mark to build up a high score.

*Three years ago we came to Lincoln High;
Amazed and awed, we passed through Lincoln's doors.
At every turn we seemed to go awry,
But we were merely nervous sophomores.*

*Yet through the weeks our fears began to fade,
And soon we came to know our Lincoln well.
No longer did we find ourselves dismayed;
We felt the tide of love within us swell.*

*Soon we found her seed within us sown;
We knew that she was part of us to stay.
Throughout our senior year this bond has grown,
Only to be quickly torn away.*

*Now some are filled with sorrow as they part,
And many tears from students' eyes are shed;
Many view the past with saddened heart,
While others view the coming years with dread.*

*But is this how the future should be faced,
With heavy hearts, so filled with misery?
Or should we seek the plan on which is based
A better future for humanity.*

*Let none of us look back at what is past,
Become complacent, lose ourselves in pride.
But rather face the future, holding fast,
To strength of purpose as a lasting guide.*

—JON BAYLEY

A day's journey on Puget Sound commemorated the class of 1961's final hours together.

Guided by advisor, Miss Rose Marie Groeger, the class of '62 proved itself to be one of recognition.

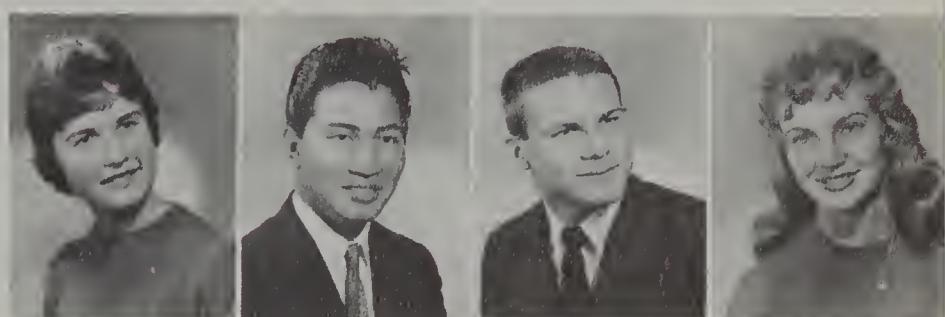

Successful UGN and Red Cross drives, and an outstanding Junior Day program and dance are evidence of the capabilities of the Juniors. Success in past endeavors and eagerness for the future, assure continued accomplishment at Lincoln as we take the reins handed to us by the graduating Seniors.

Students awarded with pins as well as the satisfaction of contributing to the Junior Red Cross Drive.

MISS YVONNE SHORT
Advisor

The Sophomore Class, under the leadership of our advisor, Miss Yvonne Short, had a very successful year.

At the beginning of the year we collected for the March of Dimes. In May, we held our traditional talent show and served for the Junior Day Breakfast. Experience gained this year will serve us as we serve Lincoln High School in our Junior and Senior years.

Money, money everywhere . . . collected by the sophomore class for the March of Dimes.

Being the first Freshman class since 1951, we had a challenge to meet.

We strived for accomplishment to uphold Lincoln's traditions.

We hope we have successfully fulfilled our duties and responsibilities of a Freshman class.
